A Growing Appetite for Wellness

Consumers have shown two strong priorities in their consumption habits over the past few years.

1. The desire to be better for the world
2. The desire to be mindful about our health

The first takes place by making smarter decisions, measuring a product by its impact on the environment and our planet. By opting out of choices that harm the earth, and instead leaning in with brands that stand for a cause, consumers are consciously shaping their environmental footprint with each purchase they make.

The second also manifests in a choice. Consumers want food not only to taste good, but also to help them accomplish their wellness goals. In grocery stores and in the snack aisle, individuals are searching for products that will both spark joy because it tastes good, and also ultimately be beneficial to our bodies and our health.

Tempeh: The Next Superfood

Tempeh is a traditional Indonesian food made by fermenting soybeans.

Our non-Soy tempeh is made from a more sustainable and healthy alternative – non-GMO, black-eyed beans.

These beans undergo a beautiful fermentation process that makes our chips nutritious, healthy, and tasty.

Our Tempeh Chips

Plant-based

All of our products are plant-based. Two of our four products, Original and Chilli, are vegan snacks.

Gluten-Free

Tempeh is made with only tapioca starch and black-eyed beans, making it a gluten-free, low-calorie snack with a crispy texture.

Gut Health

Fermented beans are rich in fiber, which helps improve gut health. However the chip retains no taste or smell unique to fermentation.

Umami

Tempeh chips have a clean, addictive, and deep umami taste. All the flavor of the black-eyed beans without the aftertaste that some legumes leave behind.

The Process

Prepare

Black-eyed beans are boiled and carefully prepared for fermentation.

Hand-crafted

All processing is done by hand, thinly sliced and fried in coconut oil to maximize the crispy texture.

Our Tempeh Chip

We do our best to preserve the taste and aroma using natural ingredients, without preservatives.

Fermentation

We carefully mix tempeh with boiled black-eyed beans and ferment them for over 30 hours.

Seasoning

Our Tempeh Chips are seasoned with all-natural seasoning.

The Beauty of Natural Fermentation

Our operations are highly systemized to batch-make our Tempeh Chips by hand. From fermentation to the final chip, the process takes about 50 hours of attention and care.

We make all our Tempeh in-house.

24 Hours

Fermentation occurs over 30 hours of careful monitoring.

32 Hours

A simple equation.
Beans + Tapioca
Flour + Fermentation
= Tempeh.

The sliced Tempeh goes straight into coconut oil.

Our experts carefully QC our products and ensure perfection.
